Dedication

O ye tired and weary house-wives
O ye never-tiring house-wives
Here's a solving, solving, solving,
Of the daily eating problem.
Here's an answer, answer, answer.
To the oft-repeated question
To the quite perplexing question
That confronts us, that annoys us.
What shall we eat? What shall we eat?
Here's a book of tested cooking,
Here's a book of tried proportions
Kindly given by our women,
Thank we them for their donation
Thank them for this little cook book.
Dedicate it to these women
To these helpful, trusty women.
Take it to your friends and neighbors,
May it prove a blessing to you.
Cookery Jingles
Dedicated to the Federation Cook Book
By Mrs. Katherine D. Tillman, A. M.
Chairman Ways and Means
National Association Colored Women's Clubs

She could draw a little, paint a little,
Talk about a book.
She could row a boat, ride a horse.
But alas she couldn't cook.
She could gown, she could go,
She could very pretty look
But her best beau he was poor
And he couldn't hire a cook.

When he learned the fatal truth
His flight he quickly took,
And his girl is single still,
Because she couldn't cook!

Believe not the love tales
You find within a book
Love's fate often turns on,
The skill of the cook:

Before a man marries
'Tis the gown or the look,
But after the wedding
He looks for a cook.
'Tis said to man's heart,
The shortest route took
Is reached through the region,
Controlled by the cook!

Go forth then a blessing,
You dear little book,
And happiness ever
Attend the good cook.

Cream of Corn Soup

Drain the liquor from 2 cans of corn (or use 12 green ears) and chop the kernels fine. Put them over the fire with a pint of water and simmer for 15 minutes. Strain through a fine strainer and return to the fire. Season with salt, pepper and a heaping teaspoon of sugar. Cook together two tablespoons each of butter and flour and when they are blended, pour upon them 3 cups of milk and a cup of cream to which a generous pinch of baking soda has been added. Stir until smooth and thick, add the corn puree, and as soon as the mixture is scalding hot, take from the fire and pour gradually, beating all the time, the beaten yolks of 2 eggs. Serve immediately.—KATE MANN BAKER.

Boston Steak

Select good thick round steak, cut in medium pieces, season well with salt and pepper, roll in flour and fry nice brown in beef drippings, then add one good size onion chopped fine and one cup of stewed tomatoes. Cover tight and let cook slowly about 1 1/2 hours. A little water can be added if there is danger of burning. Serve on hot platter and pour gravy over meat.
Boiled Rice

Wash a cup of rice thoroughly through several cold waters. Put a quart of boiling water in a kettle or double boiler. When the water boils rapidly, sprinkle in the rice and let it boil 15 or 20 minutes until the grains stand apart. Drain the rice in a colander, throw over it a cupful of cold water, loosen with a fork and place where it will dry. Season with salt and butter.—Mrs. Kate Mann Baker, Pasadena.

Corn Muffins

Sift together 1 2-3 cups flour, one cup corn meal, two rounded teaspoonfuls baking powder and a little salt. Beat to a cream two tablespoons of butter and three of sugar. Add three eggs beaten very lightly. Then stir in two cups of milk. Beat all to a smooth batter and fill well greased tins. Bake in hot oven.

Salad Dressing

Beat a raw egg very lightly. Blend with it a tablespoon of powdered sugar. Tablespoon of melted butter, half teaspoonful of French mustard, half teaspoonful of celery salt, half teaspoonful of paprika. When beaten all together, pour over this one-half cup of vinegar. Stir to a boil. Remove from the fire. Beat steadily for 2 minutes. When cold set in the ice box.

Potato Salad

Boil six large potatoes with jackets on. Peel when nearly cold and cut in squares. Cut four slices of bacon in small bits. One large onion cut in slices and fried with bacon until light brown. Pour a small cup of vinegar into the grease and then pour over potatoes. Pepper and salt to taste. Use hard-boiled eggs if desired.—Mrs. Kate Mann Baker.

American Ice-Cream

Put a half box gelatine in one quart of milk. Set on back of stove to heat gradually. Boil a minute or two. Take off the stove and stir in the yolks of four eggs well beaten with three tablespoons of sugar. Then add whites beaten with three tablespoons sugar and flavored with vanilla. Put in dish ready for table. Chill. Serve next day with cream.—Mrs. Kate Mann Baker.
Soups

Classes of Stock

Bouillon—From lean beef delicately seasoned with pepper and salt and only a few vegetables. Usually clear.

Brown Stock—Beef including the bone and fat highly seasoned with spices and vegetables.

White Stock—Veal or fowl delicately seasoned with vegetables.

Consomme—Two or three kinds of meat (beef, veal, possibly fowl) served clear. The above named soups are served first at large dinners. As a rule use quart of water to a pound of meat. The meat should always be cooked slowly. It should be cut in small pieces in order to draw nourishment out and to loosen, to break and draw gelatine out. Thicken with rice, sage, barley.

Vegetables—Carrots, turnips, onions, some times lighter vegetables, peas, beans, asparagus. Vegetables should be cooked alone and then added.

Soup Stock—Two lbs. raw meat and bone and one lb. of cooked meat and bone. 3 quarts of cold water. To each lb. of meat and bone add one tablespoon of onion, one of carrots, one turnips, cut into cubes. One stock of celery, one sprig of parsley, one-half teaspoon of salt, a few grains pepper and a bay leaf if desired. Method—Have the bones split, cut the meat into inch cubes and soak for one hour. Cold water draws out juices, coagulates albumen. Simmer for four or five hours in warm water until meat falls to pieces. Add vegetables and season about hour before the soup is done. Strain and set aside for 2 to 4 hours.

Clear Soup Stock—Remove the fat, mix with shell and whites of egg. Boil for two minutes and allow it to stand for 15 to 20 minutes on the back of the stove to settle. Then strain. Heat again before serving.—Mrs. Kate Mann, Baker, Pasadena, Cal.
